

Climate Change & Human Rights: Litigation for Mitigation

Jasper Teulings

General Counsel / Advocaat

Greenpeace International

Seminar to Address the Adverse Impacts of Climate Change on the Full Enjoyment of Human Rights

Geneva 23 February 2012

GREENPEACE

www.greenpeace.org

Climate litigation

- US : 304 statutory claims
 - 48 aimed at forcing Government to act
 - 247 to stop Government action
 - Of which 89 challenges to coal fired power stations
 - 9 to regulate private action
 - 10 common law claims
- EIA cases in Australia, NZ, USA, NL, Czech, Canada
- Human rights mechanisms, Kyoto compliance, UNCLOS, FoI, OECD complaints, UNESCO, World Bank internal investigator.

Micronesia v. Czech Coal Plant

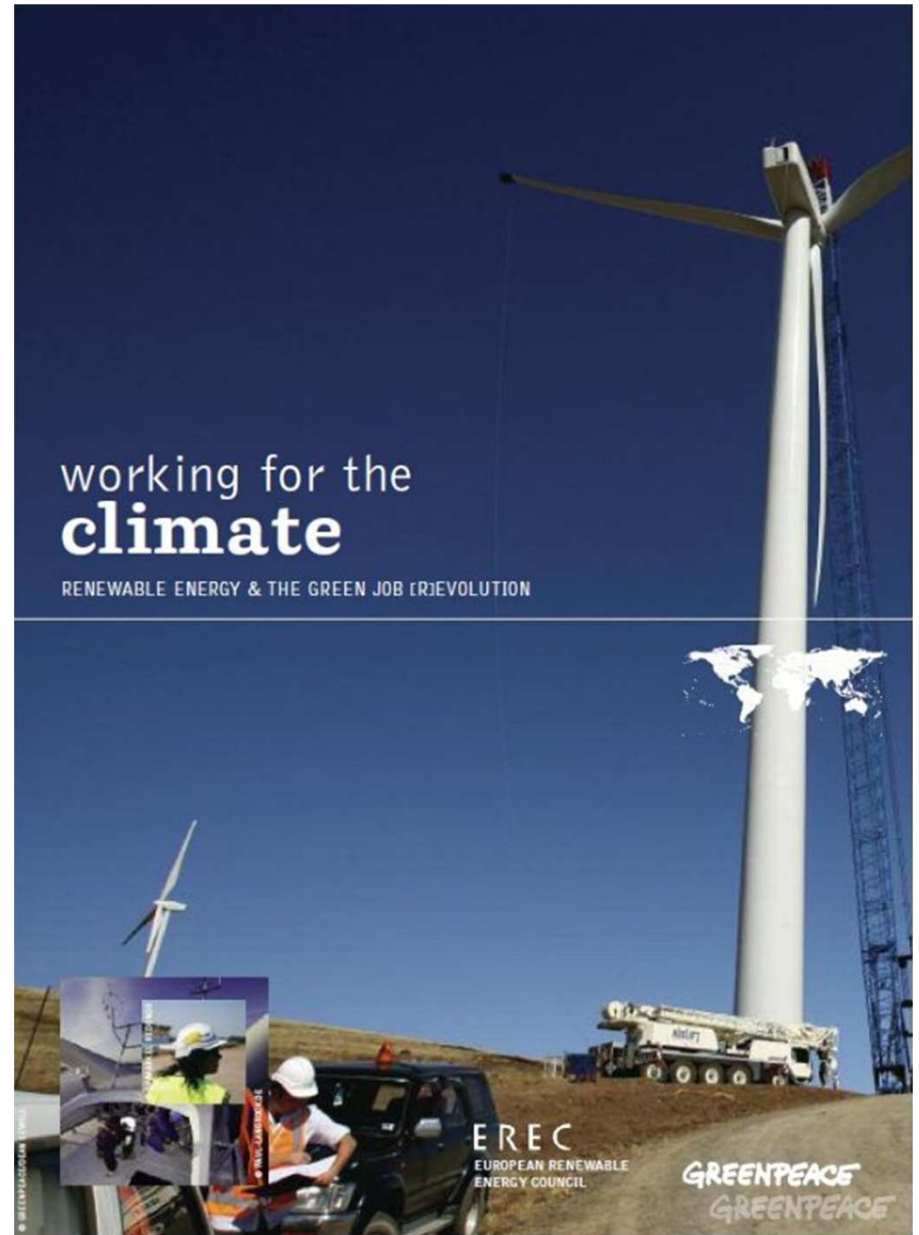

GREENPEACE

3

www.greenpeace.org

ICJ Advisory Opinion on Climate Change

GREENPEACE

www.greenpeace.org