

RELATED RESPONSES TO THE CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES (CRPD Art Study 5)

1. The constitution of our country in Article 49 installment to this term: The person with disability has the right to special measures of protection in relation to their physical, intellectual and moral.

In addition the state has the duty to promote the presence of the person with disability in the nationalles institutions, provincial and local. An organic law establishes the procedures for implementing this droit.Siganalons that this law is passed by the Houses of Parliament and forwarded to the Head of State for promulgation since March 2013.

2. In view of the foregoing the answer is NO

3. Yes, Article 11 of the constitution of our country said, "All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights" and Article 12 adds: "All Congolese are equal before the law are entitled to equal protection of the laws "

In addition, Article 16 adds: "No one shall be held in slavery or in a similar condition. No one shall be subjected to cruel, inhuman or degrading .Nul can not be required to perform forced or compulsory labor. "

4. No there is no policy or program that targets people with disabilities. However to overcome this deficiency the government through its Ministry of Social Affairs, Humanitarian Action and National Solidarity Solidarity is in the process of recruiting two national experts to conduct a documented investigation should lead to the identification of persons with disabilities, identify challenges they encounter the multiple challenges which they face, the needs for their social development, and design a national plan of action and an appropriate strategy to achieve to meet the specific problems of the disabled.

5. In view of the above implies our government gradually to the situation of disabled people in isolated cases so far the government is working for the promotion of disabled people.

By Denis Tshidingi
National Vice President